DECISION, CERTIFICATION OF REPRESENTATIVE, AND NOTICE TO SHOW CAUSE

BY CHAIRMAN LIEBMAN AND MEMBERS SCHAUMBER AND PEARCE

On May 29, 2009, the two sitting members of the Board issued a Decision and Order in this proceeding, which is reported at 354 NLRB No. 27. Thereafter, the Respondent filed a petition for review in the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit, and the General Counsel filed a cross-application for enforcement. On June 17, 2010, the United States Supreme Court issued its decision in New Process Steel, L.P. v. NLRB, 130 S.Ct. 2635, holding that under Section 3(b) of the Act, in order to exercise the delegated authority of the Board, a delegee group of at least three members must be maintained. Thereafter, the Board issued an Order setting aside the above-referenced decision and order, and retained this case on its docket for further action as appropriate.

The National Labor Relations Board has consolidated these proceedings and delegated its authority in both proceedings to a three-member panel.<sup>2</sup>

This is a refusal-to-bargain case in which the Respondent is contesting the Union's certification as bargaining representative in the underlying representation proceeding. The Board's May 29, 2009 decision states that the Respondent is precluded from litigating any representation issues because, in relevant part, they were or could have been litigated in the prior representation proceeding.<sup>3</sup> The prior proceeding, however, was also a two-member decision and we do not give it preclusive effect.

We have considered the postelection representation issues raised by the Respondent. The Board has reviewed the record in light of the exceptions and brief, and has adopted the Regional Director's findings and recommendations to the extent and for the reasons stated in the February 5, 2009 Decision and Certification of Representative, which is incorporated herein by reference.

CERTIFICATION OF REPRESENTATIVE

IT IS CERTIFIED that a majority of the valid ballots have been cast for International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, Local #1, AFL–CIO, and that it is the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the employees in the following appropriate unit:

All full-time and regular part-time journeyman electricians and apprentice electricians employed by the Employer at its Ellisville, Missouri facility, EXCLUDING office clerical and professional employees, guards, and supervisors as defined in the Act.

Notice to Show Cause

As noted above, the Respondent has refused to bargain for the purpose of testing the validity of the certification of representative in the U.S. Courts of Appeals. Although Respondent's legal position may remain unchanged, it is possible that the Respondent has or intends to commence bargaining at this time. It is also possible that other events may have occurred during the pendency of this litigation that the parties may wish to bring to our attention.

Having duly considered the matter,

- 1. The General Counsel is granted leave to amend the complaint on or before September 2, 2010, to conform with the current state of the evidence;
- 2. The Respondent's answer to the amended complaint is due on or before September 16, 2010; and
- 3. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that cause be shown, in writing, on or before October 7, 2010 (with affidavit of service on the parties to this proceeding), as to why
